

SLEEP INSTEAD OF ZOOMING, A Poem

By Martha Patterson

March 24, 2020

12 Fisher Ave., #2

Boston, MA 02120-3382 USA

Cell: 857-271-9495 / Email: MPatterson125933@aol.com

Website: <http://www.marthapatterson.org>

Blogspot: <http://marthapatterson.blogspot.com/>

SLEEP INSTEAD OF ZOOMING

My zany contacts
With their Zoom accounts
Want me, a 60+ age woman
To zing a conference off...

It's zippity doo dah, happy --
Like wizards they're online
With zesty gossip, and chat
With their zillion friends

About the zeitgist
Of the coronavirus craze
And the situation
Of being disconnected.

But I'm lazy, not easily aroused,
Though so dazzled
By their earnest application
To dispatches --

So, zapped by their requests,
It's becoming zilch to me
And I won't hazard humdrum news --
I desire to catch must-have zzz's.

###